a period of weeks or months, whereas people who use statins take them for decades. We propose a number

Tramadol is not recommended during pregnancy unless potential benefits outweigh risks, which include neonatal seizures, withdrawal syndrome, and fetal death.

I still wonder if there is a connection between some of the jerks and the apnea.